I am a doctoral researcher at the Max Planck Institute for the Study of Societies (MPIfG) and the Cologne Center for Comparative Politics. My background is in political science and public administration, and I research abortion access and gender politics from an intersectional perspective. I also have several years of non-academic work experience in nonprofits, impact investing, tech startups, and consulting.

Max Planck Society Presidential Commission on Field Research, Member since 2023

Max Planck PhDnet Equal Opportunities Working Group, Member since 2021, co-coordinator since Oct 2022

Max Planck PhDnet Social Media Working Group, Member since 2022

Max Planck PhDnet Survey Working Group, Member since 2022

Max Planck PhDnet Human Sciences Section Representative, January 2022 - December 2022

Join the six-person steering group of PhDnet, a network of 5000+ doctoral researchers working in the Max Planck Society, representing the institutes studying human sciences (including MPIfG). Collaboration with the Equal Opportunity working group and staff at MPS general administration on the Safer Spaces program, ending the use of externally-funded stipends affiliated with the MPS, extending the base contract length for doctoral researchers, and other agenda priorities.

Doctoral Spokesperson and External Representative, IMPRS-SPCE, April 2021 – April 2022

Organize events with all doctoral researchers in the IMPRS program; represent their interests in internal meetings with MPIfG management; represent the MPIfG in Max Planck PhDnet. Our top priority was fair compensation and working conditions, particularly for those DRs receiving stipends instead of contracts, and we successfully lobbied for a budget increase so that future DRs from UzK will receive contracts instead of stipends.
